Fiscal year 2007 brought so many monumental successes to Up with People. It was truly a landmark year; the new program was launched with Cast A 2006 in July, sponsors were secured in every North America city in January, the Emerging Countries program was initiated in Thailand in May, and alumni supported the organization like never before. We could not have achieved these successes and more without the continued support of people around the world. Your belief in our mission and vision is invaluable. We look forward to sharing the upcoming year with you, along with all of the challenges and accomplishments it will hold!

INTERNATIONAL PARTICIPANTS

Casts A 2006 and A 2007 were comprised of 120 students from 25 countries:

- The United States

They developed relationships with 1,150 host families around the world.

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

Up with People participants contributed more than 15,000 hours of community service to more than 40 local charitable organizations and schools. Projects included: building a playground, building homes, conducting a nonviolence program for elementary students, refurbishing buildings, assisting with services to the disabled, and planting trees. Some of our partners were: Casa de Carlitos, Make a Wish Foundation, the Fuller Center, City Year, Universitaire Stichting voor Armoedebestrijding, Zeisterwoude, De Looborch, and Gemeinsamt Engagemang.
The current show, which was developed by alumni Michael Bowerman, Eric Lentz, and Nina Maass, was adapted in each city to incorporate our community partners. It also includes a “Culture Jam” where some of the participants’ own cultural pieces and music from Ireland, New Zealand or Curacao have become part of a selection international songs and dances. This way, each cast gets to make their individual mark on the show it is touring with.

All of the proceeds from show ticket sales were given back to local community partners, totaling more than $250,000.

Participants learned critical skills in communication, conflict resolution, civic service, and leadership through experiential activities in each city. They met with local business, political and nonprofit leaders.

Students in Cast A 2006 reported improved understanding in all learning areas including local issues, global perspectives, communication techniques, and strategies for community change.

Fiscal year 2006 saw the greatest alumni participation in our development campaign than ever before recorded in Up with People’s 40 year history. More than 600 donors collectively giving over $250,000 between July 2005 and June 2006.

In fiscal year 2007, we have already surpassed this record and anticipate donations totaling over $400,000 by June 30! You can be among the alumni who are helping Up with People reach this goal by making a financial contribution online at www.upwithpeople.org/donate.html by June 30, 2007.

Rebuilding an organization takes time, and with the tremendous support shown to date, we confidently anticipate many years of growth to come. We greatly appreciate your commitment Up with People’s success! To invest in Up with People’s future, please consider setting up recurring monthly donations or multi-year gifts (ex: $1,000 per year for 3 years).
